"It was an absolute pleasure having you at our event. The process from beginning to end was so simple and fantastic communication."

— Event Organiser, Royston in Blue

Emergency Event Medics is an independent provider of professional on-site medical support, delivering tailored medical services across Hertfordshire, the surrounding counties and beyond.

We understand that every environment presents its own unique challenges. That's why we don't believe in a one-size-fits-all approach. Every event, production and project is assessed individually, allowing us to recommend the most appropriate level of medical support based on your requirements and risk profile.

From your initial enquiry through to the completion of your booking, we pride ourselves on being approachable, responsive and easy to work with..

Our aim is simple:
To provide dependable medical cover that gives organisers confidence and attendees reassurance.

Why Choose Emergency Event Medics?

Personal Approach

We believe every client deserves a personal approach. From your first enquiry, you'll deal directly with our team, taking the time to understand your requirements, answer your questions and support you every step of the way.

Tailored Medical Provision

Every event, production and project is different. We work closely with you to recommend an appropriate level of medical support, ensuring the right resources are in place for your requirements, risks and budget.

Planning & Preparation

Professional medical support starts long before the day itself. We work with you during the planning stage, providing medical plans, RAMS and practical guidance to help everything run safely and smoothly.

Professional & Approachable

We believe professionalism and approachability go hand in hand. Our team is committed to delivering high standards of patient care while remaining friendly, approachable and easy to work with.

Dependable Support

You need a medical provider you can depend on. We're committed to delivering reliable support, clear communication and a professional service from your first enquiry through to the end of your event, production or project.

"The team go that bit further, offering helpful and friendly advice and doing whatever they can to ensure the overall event is a success."
